SWEET MEATS

Hi, this is Minami! ...I-I wonder if I'll be able to get this done... I'm really nervous. ( ) I'm praying that I'll be done on time... It's been a while. ( ) This is my first new book for the year... ( ) To all the people who have shown up before now, sorry to keep you waiting! This time when I was drawing the cover and color page, I thought "For now I'll just draw what I want to draw right now..." and I ended up doing something that is my own sort of "sweet meats." (lol) It was fun... (lol) and it really got me excited. Lately (even though the cover is more or less like what I'm drawing right now), I haven't drawn anything like the back cover... I really do like guys in lace. (lol) I'd like to do something like this again.
( ) (Sorry. ( ) Black lace might be nice too...)

By the way, the title is just what it says, but the subtitle based on the contents is "Voyeur series." If you'd read this book and pretend you're looking into a room in a boys' dorm, that would be wonderful! ..... Also, I took the school setting from a different manga. (That series started out as an original doujinshi after all...) It's a school with lots of strange students, so I'm thinking of continuing the "Voyeur series"...

Anyway, I hope I'll see you again at some events next year! For the people who want to order by mail, I'd like to work on that as well (for now you can ask at Messe Sanou or Tora no Ana*). Have a nice New Years, and thank you very much!

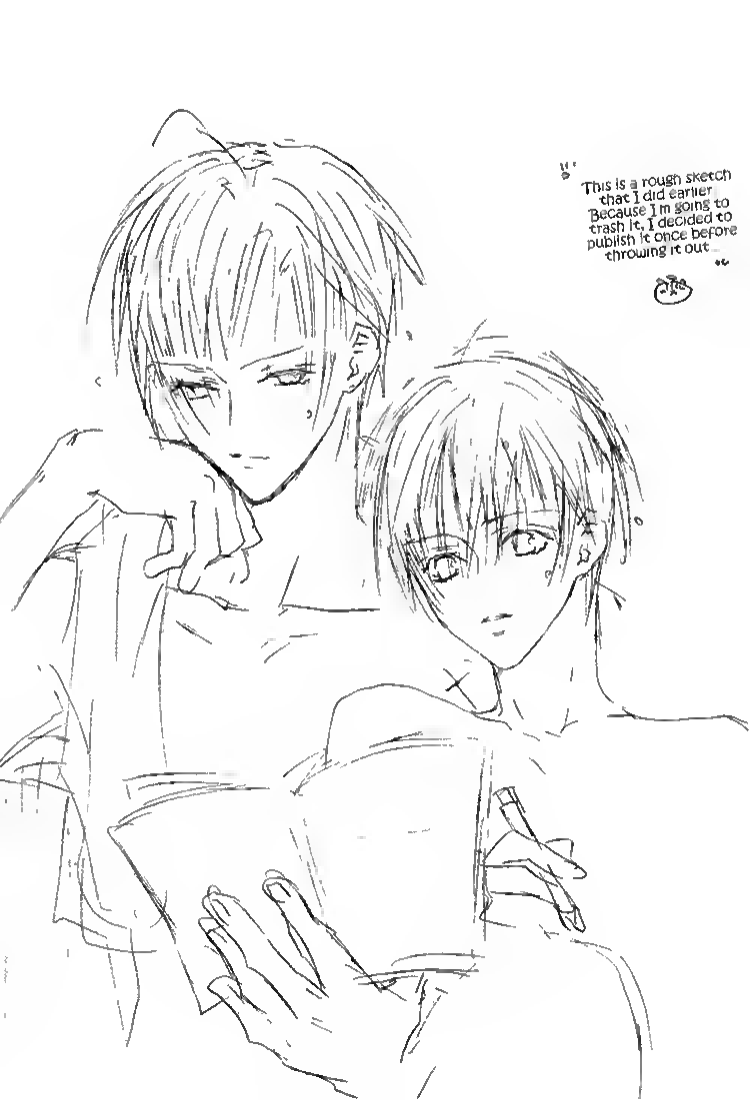
END!



This is a rough sketch that I did earlier. Because I'm going to trash it, I decided to publish it once before throwing it out...

Anyway... I did everything I could. (｡•̀ᴗ-) I got my work done for now, but it was a really strange day. I thought about giving up for a bit... but because Brain-sama adjusted the deadline for me (thank you so much for always printing my books (｡•̀ᴗ-)), it looks like I'll be able to get this one out. I'm really grateful, Brain-sama! This was a bigger reward (for me (　ˇ　)) than anything else this year. ;)

The first free talk was actually the first thing I wrote for this book, and this is the last... I apologize for the awful handwriting!! (lol) I've been really weak to lots of stress recently. When my pen gets all wobbly, it's because the sandman is calling... I just can't win against drowsiness~~!!! So, thank you very much for reading. ...It was short... It's been a long day... >>

I'm planning on drawing a story for the boy wearing just an apron on for next time
I'm going to have to come up with some new sound effects—
